"it's kind of fun to do the impossible..."

The tabs near the top of your screen are where you will be exploring:

My Disney travel agents

Once you've had a browse, you'll want to begin your training and learn the modules that are available.

The Disney stars page is only accessible through the Disney travel agents website. Each time you wish to visit Disney stars you will need to log into www.disneytravelagents.co.uk

The home page will be the first thing you see with all the latest news that is happening within the Walt Disney Company.

Don't mess with the mouse!

“all it takes is faith, trust and pixie dust...”

Follow these steps on how to navigate your way round the Disney stars section.

On the far-left side at the top of the screen you'll need to click the tab to open the drop-down menu. The options you can select are:

- Wall
- Training courses
- Search
- Profile
- Apps

Your main section you will be visiting is the training courses. This is where you will learn all sorts of modules within the Disney company as a UK travel agent.

You can come back and forth as much as you like in this section. Especially as new additions come to Disney, more courses will be added that you can learn on.

The modules will be a mixture of knowledge to learn, and some will have quiz style questions you will have to answer. Each module you'll visit will even have games for you to play. Which include information that tests your brain on what you have learnt. If you haven't scored high enough, you can retry multiple times till you reach the correct answers.

When you've completed modules in the training, you will earn badges.

The badges you have earned, and how much time you've spent learning about Disney, will be stored in your 'profile' section from the drop-down menu. You can find the drop down menu on the far left hand side of the screen. The amount of badges will be listed, plus the hours/minutes you have invested into learning about Disney.

(Please note - Disney used to provide Certificates when modules were completed unfortunately they don't do this anymore).

We mainly get access to Disney Cruise Line. All Disney agents will be entitled to one discounted cruise per year. Cruises are released by Disney at any time so make sure you check the page every so often.

Cruises can range from the Caribbean, Alaska, and even Europe. The stateroom could be inside, Oceanview porthole or even a veranda. These will be shown on the PDF documents available on this part of the website. This document will also show the dates and what cruise ship is sailing. This benefit is based on double occupancy but can be increased depending on availability.

If you are interested in sailing on one of the Disney cruises, then we would recommend visiting this part of www.disneytravelagents.co.uk. Disney is always updating the PDF documents to show us all the latest discounted sailings. So make sure you visit this page frequently.

There are two options we have access to, which we will explain below:

Travel Agent Space Available Rates

These rates are offered to qualified travel agent professionals. (You will need a letter from inteltravel to show who you are, this would be considered as your agent ID). Rates and availability are subject to change without notice and are on a first come first serve basis. If you click on the PDF that is on the website, which will show you all the current sailings & rates. The booking process for us agents is straightforward as we only need to call Disney Cruise Line on (407) 566-6978 Monday to Friday, between 8am - 10pm EST. If you need to call on the weekend, the time is between 9am to 8pm EST. When you make your call to check for availability of the agent rate, you need to quote 'TA Space Available' Rate. Discounted cruises are as little as $55 per person per night.

Travel Agent Appreciation Program Rates

These rates are also on the same basis as above, however for agents that have completed the Disney training courses. You will be able to book other Disney cruises which are extremely discounted. As low as $20 per person per night.
